This Week’s Congregational Prayer

Blessed Trinity, we can never thank you enough for the sacrifices you made to atone for our sins, and rescue us from the dominion of darkness and the slavery of sin, and raise us from the dead. We are moved by the Father giving up his only begotten Son for us, and by the Son’s sacrifice of his own life for us, and by the Spirit’s ceaseless and selfless work pointing people to Christ and the life that can be found only in him. God, your grace for us is so amazing. We pray, help us reflect your grace by being gracious to others this week, and help us to glorify you by telling someone about the grace you have given us.
