PASTORAL COLUMN

We've made it through the highlights of the church year: Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, Easter, and most recently, Pentecost. Now what? What do we teach and focus on until the next December rolls around again? I believe we now have an opportunity for the next six months to reflect and apply to our lives all that we have heard and experienced this year so far. What does it mean for us that the Father sent His Son? What does it mean for us that the Son suffered, died, rose, and ascended? What does it mean for us that the Holy Spirit dwells with us? How have our lives changed because of these truths? How should they change?

The book of James in the New Testament is a great place to find some hard-hitting application. You may have heard the saying, "Less talk and more action." This cultural phrase matches well with James. James' letter is about faith in action: "Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves" (James 1:22). James took action by encouraging his poor brothers and sisters to suffer injustice in such a way that their steadfast faith would be an example to their oppressors (4:1-8). Violence doesn't bring about justice; loves does (1:19-20). James also encouraged those with means to care for those who were poor and distressed, namely, orphans and widows (1:27). To both groups, and to everyone in between, James explains that true worship is: (1) empowered by the Holy Spirit and the truths He reminds us of; (2) is not merely what we say we believe; but (3) in how we live that out by loving those around us.

May you be challenged by the truths that you heard these last six months – and now make them a reality in your own life. And just in case you need reminded once more: the Father loves you so much that He sent His most precious Son for you. The Son loves you so much that He suffered and died for your sins. The Holy Spirit loves you so much that he chooses to live and dwell with you always.

May these truths change your life forever,

Pastor Ryan Volkman

CHURCH OFFICE UPDATES

He is scheduled to return to the office on Monday, June 12th but may not be quite back up to full speed for several more weeks. We ask that you continue to be in prayer for Pastor Erich, as well as Lynne, as they navigate this time of healing and treatment together.

CONGREGATIONAL NEWS & THANK YOU'S

All,

Thank you for your cards and prayers as our mother exited this earth to her heavenly home. Your support is greatly appreciated.

John and Mary Beck

Church Family,

I love my church family very much and it is comforting that I know where there is help. These past months, the Lord has blessed me greatly. When I was feeling discouraged, the Lord sent someone to my door with a dish of food, a smile or a willing hand. Even the mail lady was a joy. She brought encouragement of "Get Well" cards that gave me strength to deal with my pain. I can't thank all of you enough for being part of God's plan to make sure I never felt alone. From my heart, I pray He will bless you all.

Carol DeVries

St. John's Church Family,

Thank you for the scholarship money for my schooling. It will be going towards my tuition and my book fees. I also appreciate all of the support and prayers from my church family.

Thank You,

These tasks include things like cleaning, setting up tables and chairs, setting up LOGOS spaces, organizing office and kitchen supplies, folding and sorting the monthly issues of The Visitor for mailing, and so much more. Congratulations to the programs graduates, Addy Gamber, Connor Ashby, Erick Arteaga, Kaela Egler, Emma Ashby, and Kadden Breedlove. We look forward to the Work Transition Program returning this fall!

While the Outback is located in Archbold, they have welcomed youth from all over Northwest Ohio. There are many calendar events throughout the year that provide youth with a message, fun games, activities, and food. The Outback has partnered with area youth leaders and other ministries to keep the community involved with what the Outback is doing. You can find more information about the Outback Youth Center online at defyfc.org/. To give to The Outback, simply write "MAM" on Line 11 of your offering envelop or select "Give to Outback Youth Center" in the "Give to" drop-down menu on Breeze's online giving feature.

MISSION CORNER

Summer Mission Trip – June 26th-30th – Serving with LaPorte County Habitat for Humanity

LaPorte County Habitat for Humanity is based in Michigan City, Indiana, about two and half hours from Archbold. Volunteering with Habitat for Humanity has so many positives:

- ♦ Unskilled volunteers work alongside skilled leaders and learn new skills
- ♦ Habitat provides all the tools, materials and equipment needed.
- ♦ A group of twelve volunteers can accomplish quite a bit in one day, let alone five days!
- ♦ Volunteers have the opportunity to meet and work with the people who will buy the home.

The plan is to drive up Monday morning on June 26th to spend five days working on a new home build. The group will work until lunchtime on Friday, June 30th and then return back to Archbold. Lodging will most likely be in one or two area Airbnb places (that worked well last year). The week has always turned out to be a very good week of work, fellowship and food! If you've been on the fence about this experience, contact Pastor Erich to learn more. There's still time to sign up!

MISSION THANK YOU'S

St. John's,

We are in the midst of an international move. We are still in the DR wrapping things up. On June 2, we will fly to the states briefly for a family party, and then we will all head to our new assignment in Mexico for a couple of weeks. We need wisdom with choosing housing and buying a vehicle, and there are lots of other details, including acquainting our kids to their new home.

We will then head back up to the states to furlough. We'll be doing quite a bit of traveling and we will be raising additional support, as the cost of living is higher there than here.

We have joined forces with a fantastic organization called Orphanos, a ministry that services only to missionaries that provide direct care to orphans and vulnerable children. We will spend some time in Memphis with them on a training retreat. We pray that it will be a fruitful and restful week!

On the whole, emotions are at a high level in the Suon house. We look forward to the future and at the same time there is a sense of loss. Moving is difficult! We want to turn towards each other and the Lord during this transition.

In short, we covet your prayers during this time of change and anticipation. We are really looking forward to our visit to St. John's on Sunday, July 23rd, where we'll present on this change at 9:15AM in the Sanctuary and briefly during both services of worship! We are involved with several churches, but our connection with your church is a sweet one! So grateful to be an extension of the local body there.

Thank You!
 Jason & Becky Suon
